

Must See & Do

- Tour Cape Schanck Lighthouse
- Play a round of golf at Moonah Links or The Dunes
- Visit Australia's oldest hedge maze at Ashcombe Maze
- Relax at a resort day spa or Peninsula Hot Springs
- Tour the many local wineries

The Mornington Peninsula is just a 90 minute drive from Melbourne and is one of the most picturesque destinations in Victoria. You'll find a spectacular coastline with beautiful beaches, water activities, majestic coastal walks and superb views of Bass Strait from Cape Schanck.

Head inland and explore the abundance of vineyards, orchards and olive groves tucked away among the rolling hills, visit wineries and berry farms, galleries and hot springs.

The Mornington Peninsula also features some of Australia's best golf courses including Moonah Links, specifically designed for the prestigious Australian Open, and The Dunes.

Cape Schanck Light Station ★★★

Located 90 minutes from Melbourne, set on the rugged cliffs at the isolated southern point of the Mornington Peninsula.
