

Adelaide and Adelaide Hills

River Torrens

A city surrounded by parklands, with world class food and wine and a thriving arts scene, Adelaide is a city that satisfies all the senses. Visit North Terrace's museums, galleries and gardens for an insight into the city's culture. Taste the food and wine the city is renowned for at one of the 700 plus restaurants. The best spots can be found at Rundle, Hutt or Gouger Streets, or O'Connell and Melbourne Streets in North Adelaide.

Rundle Mall is the city's retail hub – follow it to Rundle Street for funky fashion. For the best selection of boutiques, homewares and cafés head to The Parade at Norwood or King William Road at Hyde Park, a shopping hotspot where you'll find local favourites Gary Castles Sydney, Liza Emanuele, Wildchild Stylelab and Jo Malone.

A 20 minute tram ride to Glenelg takes you to Adelaide's most popular beach destination. It's always buzzing with people enjoying the sand and sea, foreshore parks and shops and sidewalk cafés along Jetty Road. Stroll along the jetty or enjoy the summertime entertainment.

An easy 30 minute drive east of the city leads to the picturesque farmlands and charming villages of the Adelaide Hills. Visit cellar doors and country pubs, wander among the craft shops, antiques stores and cafés or go bush walking in national parks. Pick your own strawberries at Beerenberg or sample treats from the German bakeries that line the main street in historic Hahndorf, Australia's oldest surviving German settlement.
