Our Favourites

Drive the Grand Pacific Drive

See water shooting up to 60 metres in the air from the Kiama Blowhole

Visit Mogo Zoo, south of Batemans Bay, to see rare and endangered animals

Visit the Bradman Museum of Cricket in Bowral

Go bushwalking in Morton National Park in the Southern Highlands

Treat yourself to fresh fish and Clyde River oysters

Uncrowded beaches, crystal clear waters and more than 30 national parks make the South Coast a favourite with those seeking relaxation amongst unspoilt wilderness.

If it's spectacular scenery you're after, Wollongong delivers. Just an hour's drive from Sydney, travel via the Grand Pacific Drive and take in the breathtaking coastline perfectly framed by its mountain backdrop. Soak up the city's culture and heritage at galleries, memorials and temples.

Further south is the coastal paradise of Kiama. Famous for its blowhole and surfing beaches, there's a casual atmosphere and a beach for everyone.

The Shoalhaven region delivers more pristine beaches and beautiful national parks. Some of the whitest sand in the world can be found at Hyams Beach in Jervis Bay. Batemans Bay is another family favourite where you can mix your beach holiday with fascinating national parks.

From quaint villages to pretty-as-a-picture garden settings, the Southern Highlands knows how to charm. Get swept up in the heritage buildings and beautiful rolling hills. From cellar doors and cafés to food stalls and farmer's markets, enjoy some local produce in a beautiful setting.

Then there's the thrills and challenges of two confronting swaying springboard cantilevers suspended 25 metres above the forest floor which take you to the edge of the escarpment.
