HIGHLIGHTS:

- Twelve Apostles ■ Bells Beach ■ Loch Ard Gorge
- Great Otway National Park ■ London Arch
- Bay of Islands ■ Bay of Martyrs

Day 1: Melbourne to Apollo Bay

Depart Melbourne via the West Gate Bridge and travel through vast volcanic plains en route to Geelong where you can stroll along the beautifully transformed waterfront. Start your Great Ocean Road journey at Torquay and visit Bells Beach before morning tea and observing Eastern Grey Kangaroos in the wild. The journey then begins travelling the very scenic, cliff-hugging section of the Great Ocean Road. Stop to view sites such as the Memorial Arch. Lorne is the largest of the seaside resorts, with its abundance of cafés, restaurants, beaches and shops, it is a perfect place for a lunch break. After lunch, cruise along the spectacular road, stopping at many scenic spots including Kennett River where you can see koalas and colourful native birds in the wild. Travelling through Apollo Bay, discover the Great Otway National Park. Take a short guided walk through a cool temperate rainforest. Dinner and overnight in Apollo Bay. (D)

Day 2: Apollo Bay to Melbourne

Breakfast at the locals' favourite café is a perfect way to start another full day. The journey starts by travelling through the Otway ranges towards the Shipwreck Coast. We Stop at Castle Cove overlooking the Aire river valley so your guide can introduce you to the strong Aboriginal heritage and pre-historic significance of the region. Arrive at the iconic Twelve Apostles as the stacks are lit with the morning sun making them perfect for photos. After hearing of the creation of the stacks and holding some of the limestone rock you can explore the boardwalks or take a helicopter flight along the coastline (extra charge). Visit Loch Ard Gorge, the site of the most famous 19th century Australian shipwreck, to hear the famous tale of the two survivors while various artefacts from the shipwreck are passed around. Lunch today is in Port Campbell, a fishing village of just 350 residents set in a beautiful natural port. After lunch, keep travelling west of Port Campbell to explore London Arch, Bay of Islands, Bay of Martyrs, and Boat Bay before your journey turns inland and travels through open farmland towards Melbourne.
