

Lakes Entrance

Our Favourites

Visit Walhalla's fascinating hillside cemetery and climb to the mountain top cricket ground

Take part in the Gippsland Food and Wine Festival in February and March

Watch boats sail by at sunset from the lawns of the Metung Hotel

Take in views of Lakes Entrance from Jemmy's Point Lookout

As diverse as it is beautiful, Gippsland's landscape moves from beaches to lakes to mountain ranges, with towns that all have that casual country charm.

Travel along winding country roads to the aptly named Valley of the Gods; historic gold mining town Walhalla. Once one of Australia's richest towns after gold discoveries in the 1800s, this pretty-as-a-picture mountain town now has less than 20 residents. See reminders of the past on a historic town walk, tour the Long Tunnel Mine or ride the Walhalla Goldfields Railway. There are plenty of options for outdoor enthusiasts including cross country skiing and hiking at nearby Mt St Gwinear or downhill skiing at Mt Baw Baw, a favourite with the locals. Hikers can tackle part of the Australian Alps Walking Track that starts in Walhalla and ends 680km away in Canberra.

Picturesque Sale is your gateway to the Gippsland Lakes, with access to great beaches and national parks. Tiny Metung is a picture-book village on a peninsula in the Gippsland Lakes. Kilometres of water attract boaties and summer water skiers, as well as contemporary artists attracted by the waterside setting. Harbourside restaurants make the most of the local seafood and wine.

Seafood capital Lakes Entrance has a casual seaside charm and a standout location on Ninety Mile Beach and the Gippsland Lakes, making it a popular holiday spot. Fishing, boating, swimming, water-skiing – there's plenty to keep you occupied. Freshly caught seafood is always on the menu at local cafés and restaurants but you can't beat a picnic of fish and chips.
